MEN AND RELIGION DINNER FOR 500 MEN

Leaders of the Movement Soon to Be Got Going Here Are on Hand.

WANT MEN IN THE CHURCH

Which Has Become Effeminized, It Is Explained—Cooperation Another ldea to Further.

There is to begin in Brooklyn on March 20 and in Manhattan on April 14 the last campaign of the series that has progressed through ninety American cities in the past eight months, and is known as the Men and Religion Forward Movement. It is the biggest job of the interdenominational evangelizers whose cry is "Bring men back to the churches and vitalize the church." Last night 500 men attended a dinner at the Broadway Tabernacle to meet the religious leaders from all parts of the country who are heading the movement, and who, when the local campaign is finished, are to report at the Christian Conservation Congress to be held in Carnegie Hall April 19 to 24.

President John H. Finley of the College of the City of New York presided at the speaking which followed the dinner. Fred B. Smith, the evangelist, who is commander-in-chief of the movement. was one of the speakers. Others were the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Brown, who recently came from a California pulpit to be dean of the Yale Theological School. and the Rev. Dr. James A. Francis, whose Clarendon avenue church building in Beston burned on Wednesday night. William J. Schieffelin, William Fellowes Morgan, J. A. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe: Dr. Peter B. Ainsley of Baltimore and Dr. Randolph N. McKim of Washington were also among the 500. Dr. Brown said that the slogan of the New York fight should be "Get your man"; that if ten men here and ten men there that if ten men here and ten men there should each pledge himself to bring another man into the church the whole city could be turned. The church must have men, he said, for men are militant. He remembered that of the 586 famous names of history inscribed on the Boston Public Library only six were those of women. He said that the church has become effeminized and that it is time to make it more virile. to make it more virile.

Yale's dean was glad that sermons were coming to be preached about industrial justice. He approved of his own church paper printing articles about the Lawrence strike. He thought that if there had been Christian cooperation between mill owners and operatives, such between mill owners and operatives, such cooperation as the forward movement is striving for, there would have been no

Dr. Francis asked, "Why should a city, a Christian city, be so pagan in its social life as to make it easy for a man to do wrong and hard for him to do right? He said also that there had never been such an age of social unrest as this one since the morning stars began to shine and that the regions of unrest were the countries which have Christianity.

countries which have Christianity.

"Instead of this unrest being a sign that the devil is abroad on the earth," he went on, "it is the growing pain of the kingdom of God. You might as well try to tame a Bengal tiger by cutting its toenails as to stop it. What will make every other reform look like a pinhead will be the adjustment of business to common righteousness."

common righteousness."

Dr. Francis told of a manufacturing acquaintance of his who boasted of having taken $100,000 profit out of his small business last year. His profit was larger than his payroll. He employed sixty women and their highest pay was $11,50 a week.

women and their highest property week.

"That man's conscience is still in the age of slavery," Dr. Francis said. "This movement is directed at such men."

URGED TO FORM CO-OP STORES.

Loan Association Men Told It's Wiser Than Waiting on the Tariff.

Judge Walter L. Durack, who is presi dent of the Metropolitan League of Savings and Loan Associations, told the members of the league and their wives at dinner last night at the Aldine Club weekly that he believed the time was at hand to start a string of co-operative stores, not by the loan associations themselves, for that would be a defiance of the law, but by their officers and members. Judge Durack prophesied that stores of this sort would be started before the end of the year, and that a beginning would be made Brooklyn.

'No amount of legislation or readjustment of the tariff is going to change the economic conditions in this country which are responsible for the high cost of living," said Judge Durack. "The trend of the age is toward combination for the sake of economy.

"There are twenty-five loan associations in Brooklyn and eighty in the met-They have $26,000,000 in assets and 50 .-60) members. Their purpose is co-opera-tion in the building and buying of homes. The co-operative store would supply food on the same principle.

on the same principle."
Judge Durack believes that a subscription of $10 from each member of the co-operative store association would be enough to set it going. The members would share in the profits according to the amount of their purchases.
Judge Durack suggested also to the loan association men that they establish a central office to serve as a sort of clearing house, where one association could borrow when necessary from another, and where there could be an interchange of business. He proposed that the clearing house be set up on Broadway in Manhattan.

erchange of business. He proposed that the clearing house be set up on Broadway in Manhattan.

At the head table with Judge Durack were: Archibald W. McEwan, secretary of the league, and Robert Sarey, Justice isaac F. Russell of the Court of Special Sessions, Hon. John J. Murphy, tenement house commissioner, George I. Skinner and B. C. Forbes, who were speakers. Elsewhere were Robert P. Austin, John L. Burgoyne, Franklin H. Corwin, John K. Fitch, J. H. DeLamater, Magnus Gross, Iravid B. Hutton, John Hutton, John Schultz, John B. Sabine and C. T. Roe.

Chicago, March 14.—The ten meat packers on trial before Federal Judge Carpenter on charges of criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law will not put in any evidence.

Arguments of counsel will begin next Monday and it is expected that the jury will be instructed by the court a week later.

The decision not to submit any evidence came after counsel for the defendants had discussed for some time the method of procedure. Attorney Levy Mayer, it is understood, pointed out that considerable evidence for the defendants had been put in on crossex amination.

Mr. Wickersham agreed to supply a comparative statement of the cases reversed by the courts before the Commerce Court. Attorney-General Wickerham declared the Commerce Court has shortened litigation; that its aboution would result in long delays in settling cases.

"Cases are now concentrated in one court." he said. "Litigation has been curtailed and shippers and carriers are not put to the inconvenience of going all over the court said:

"There is nothing to be said. In our confinence commission."

There is nothing to be said. In our confinence court of the courts should be continued until its jurisdiction and limitations are settled by Supreme Court decisions.
